Prologue

WHAN that Septembre peynted al the mede
And frosted al the leves gold and rede
Fower year agoon there cam a strange arraye
Of youth, both boys and maydes, fresshe and gaye
On pilgrimage to wide renowned shrine,
The See Imperial of Wisdom ful benigne
The Lord of this demeyne, the Duk sovran
Of lerninge's lands so broad, a courtly man
He is, and semely and ful fit to han
Swich high estate, and wys and wel y-taught
And of manhood lackede right naught
Wel coude he rede a lessoun, and eek thereto
He is right a merye man and deemes it vertu
To maken japes and jollitee anon
Whan al sober matter is wel y-don.
The younge pilgrims thru wide halles space
He skilfully doth parcel to finde, o'grace,
Each his lytel part to playe and prys
To win by his own labour, fool or wys.
The Duk, y-skilled in governance, devyned
That beste to maken his lieges mind
Was eek to share the taske and hence decreed
That each grave master write a secret screed
To name as ruling Council the moste stoute
Of al to helpe him brydel the motley route.

Epilogue

NOW han the Lord of Wisdom's halles broughte
With aid of Council grave, o'er journey fraughte
With snares so depe, his lieges younge and gaye.
The pitfalls caught a few, and some awaye
Did go of their own liste, but many wys
And brave souls toiled on to win the prys.
And honors won, fame for themselves and ful
Renown and glory, too, for their great school
In tourneys classic, journalistic, and
Forensic shone their learning while the band
And eek the chorus hath displayn their skill
In realm of art. With no less zealous will
Han these bold pilgrims stryven in feats of strength
On many a field the heroes marked their length
On cold hard ground to vaunt a golden ball
As trophy of their nimble feet, or withal
Did toil to reach a basket's parlous height
Nor spared themselves in any strenuous fight;
While on the sidelines the ones of skill more slight
Han lent their voices' loud encouragement
To cheer with trained throats their comrades bent
On victory. And great rewards have been
Their portion; and greater yet may be, we ween,
The conquests waiting that greater pilgrimage
They have to go from youth to hoary age.

Pan-American Student Forum

Pan-American Student Forum is a national organization that is entertaining a thousand delegates at its third annual convention to be held in Dallas, June 12-15, 1937.

Programs in Spanish are presented during the year at dinner meetings at a down-town hotel by the all-city club.

For scholarship, industry, physical and mental capacity and service to the school, The Pan-American Student Forum has the very highest standards, and it has the most representative students of any club in high school.

Debate Club

Achievement is the measure by which we determine worth. The North Dallas Debate Club started the season in September with seven members from the previous year's club and a total of seventeen member-degrees in the National Forensic League, national speech honor society. At the present time the club boasts twenty-five members and a total of 58 member-degrees. Six members have been awarded the degree of distinction this year, the highest honor offered by this society.

During the past season members have participated in speech tournaments held at Joinerville, Houston, Baylor, Wichita Falls, Abilene, Denton, North Dallas, and the N. F. L. tournament at S. M. U. Debating teams have participated in over one hundred and fifty debates and have won more than ninety of these.

In the City of Dallas division of the State University Interscholastic League, North Dallas placed first in girls' and second in boys' debate, first in boys' and second in girls' extemporaneous speaking, and third and fourth, respectively, in boys' and girls' declamation.

North Dallas has the leading N.F.L. chapter in the district composed of Texas, Louisiana, and Arkansas. Mr. Knapp has for the past three years held chairmanship of this district. Officers of the Club are:

BEN N. RAMEY	President
JACK KERN	Vice-President
MARTHA GIBSON	Secretary
TOM McELROY	Treasurer

The French Club

The French Club of North Dallas High School is composed of four lesser clubs, each of which represents one of the French classes.

The membership of the French Club includes all the students in North Dallas High School who take French. Each French class is organized as a club and these clubs in turn are a part of the central club. Although each club has its own set of officers, the central club meets monthly at which time one of the class clubs has charge of the program. The programs usually includes a play dealing with some phase of French history and music. The club also sponsors contests of various sorts. This year a medal will be presented to the student who has the widest general knowledge concerning France, her history and her literature. For the social event of this term the club plans to have a picnic at the O'Beirne home.

WILBUR KEITH . . . Co-captain . . . played wingback, called signals, and kicked . . . probably the greatest all-around athlete ever to wear the orange and white . . . noted for his ability to catch passes . . . three letters and All-City selection.

ROBERT ZSCHACH . . . Co-captain . . . played fullback . . . blocked, called signals, and plunged the line . . . considered the best defensive back in the city . . . did more than his part in winning the championship . . . three letters and All-City.

DEAN BURFORD . . . All-State tackle . . . was largely the reason why opponents could not gain yardage . . . scored two touchdowns during season—blocked a punt in the Adamson game and sprinted 60 yards for a touchdown . . . two-year letterman.

MORGAN NESBITT . . . unanimously selected as All-City end . . . was excellent on defense . . . one of the best athletes ever in North Dallas . . . caught the pass for the last touchdown in the Tech game . . . two letters.

WALLIS SMITH . . . All-City halfback . . . was on the throwing end of North Dallas' famed aerial attack . . . made brilliant pass interception in the Tech game and ran 55 yards for a touchdown . . . two letters.

WALTER LEAVELL . . . right tackle . . . a terror to the opponent's offense . . . made those long kick-offs . . . played tackle, backer-up, and defensive guard in the course of the season . . . two letters.

DOUGLAS IVEY . . . left half . . . ran 26 yards in the mud for a touchdown against Gainesville . . . threw touchdown pass in Tech game . . . kept Coach in doubt whether to start him or Wally . . . two-year letterman.

LEON SHERRILL . . . quarterback . . . liked to tackle and block hard . . . often cut down two men with his perfectly-executed blocks . . . always took his football seriously . . . played in the All-City game.

FRANK PECK . . . one of the best ends in the city . . . carried a blocked punt over for a touchdown in Breckenridge game . . . given the name "Frisky" by a local sports writer . . . out with injured knee at end of the season.

TOM EVANS . . . center . . . was an excellent blocker—even after his shoulder was knocked down in the Forest game . . . did his part in winning the championship . . . always wore orange socks.

EDDIE ARCHER . . . left guard . . . was the fifth man in opponents' backfields . . . unusually fast on blocking for end runs . . . played in the All-City game . . . hurt his ankle but that didn't bother him.

GEORGE MERIWETHER . . . alternated with Perkins at right guard . . . played heads-up football throughout the season . . . got sick on peaches and cream in Breckenridge game . . . was unusually good on offense.

BOB PERKINS . . . right guard . . . although he and George played the same position, they were the best of friends . . . known as "Li'l Abner" . . . was a sterling defensive player . . . fought hard in every game.

BILL BLESSING . . . end . . . was first-string the latter half of the season . . . played exceptionally well in the Adamson and Tech games . . . was his first and last year on varsity.

JACK O'BEIRNE . . . center . . . was changed from tackle at mid-season . . . proved his playing ability by a fine performance in the Woodrow game . . . also played good game against Tech.

JAMES MCKEE . . . tackle . . . aggressive, fast, and rough . . . galloped 60 yards for a touchdown in Breckenridge game—but the play was called back . . . has another year.

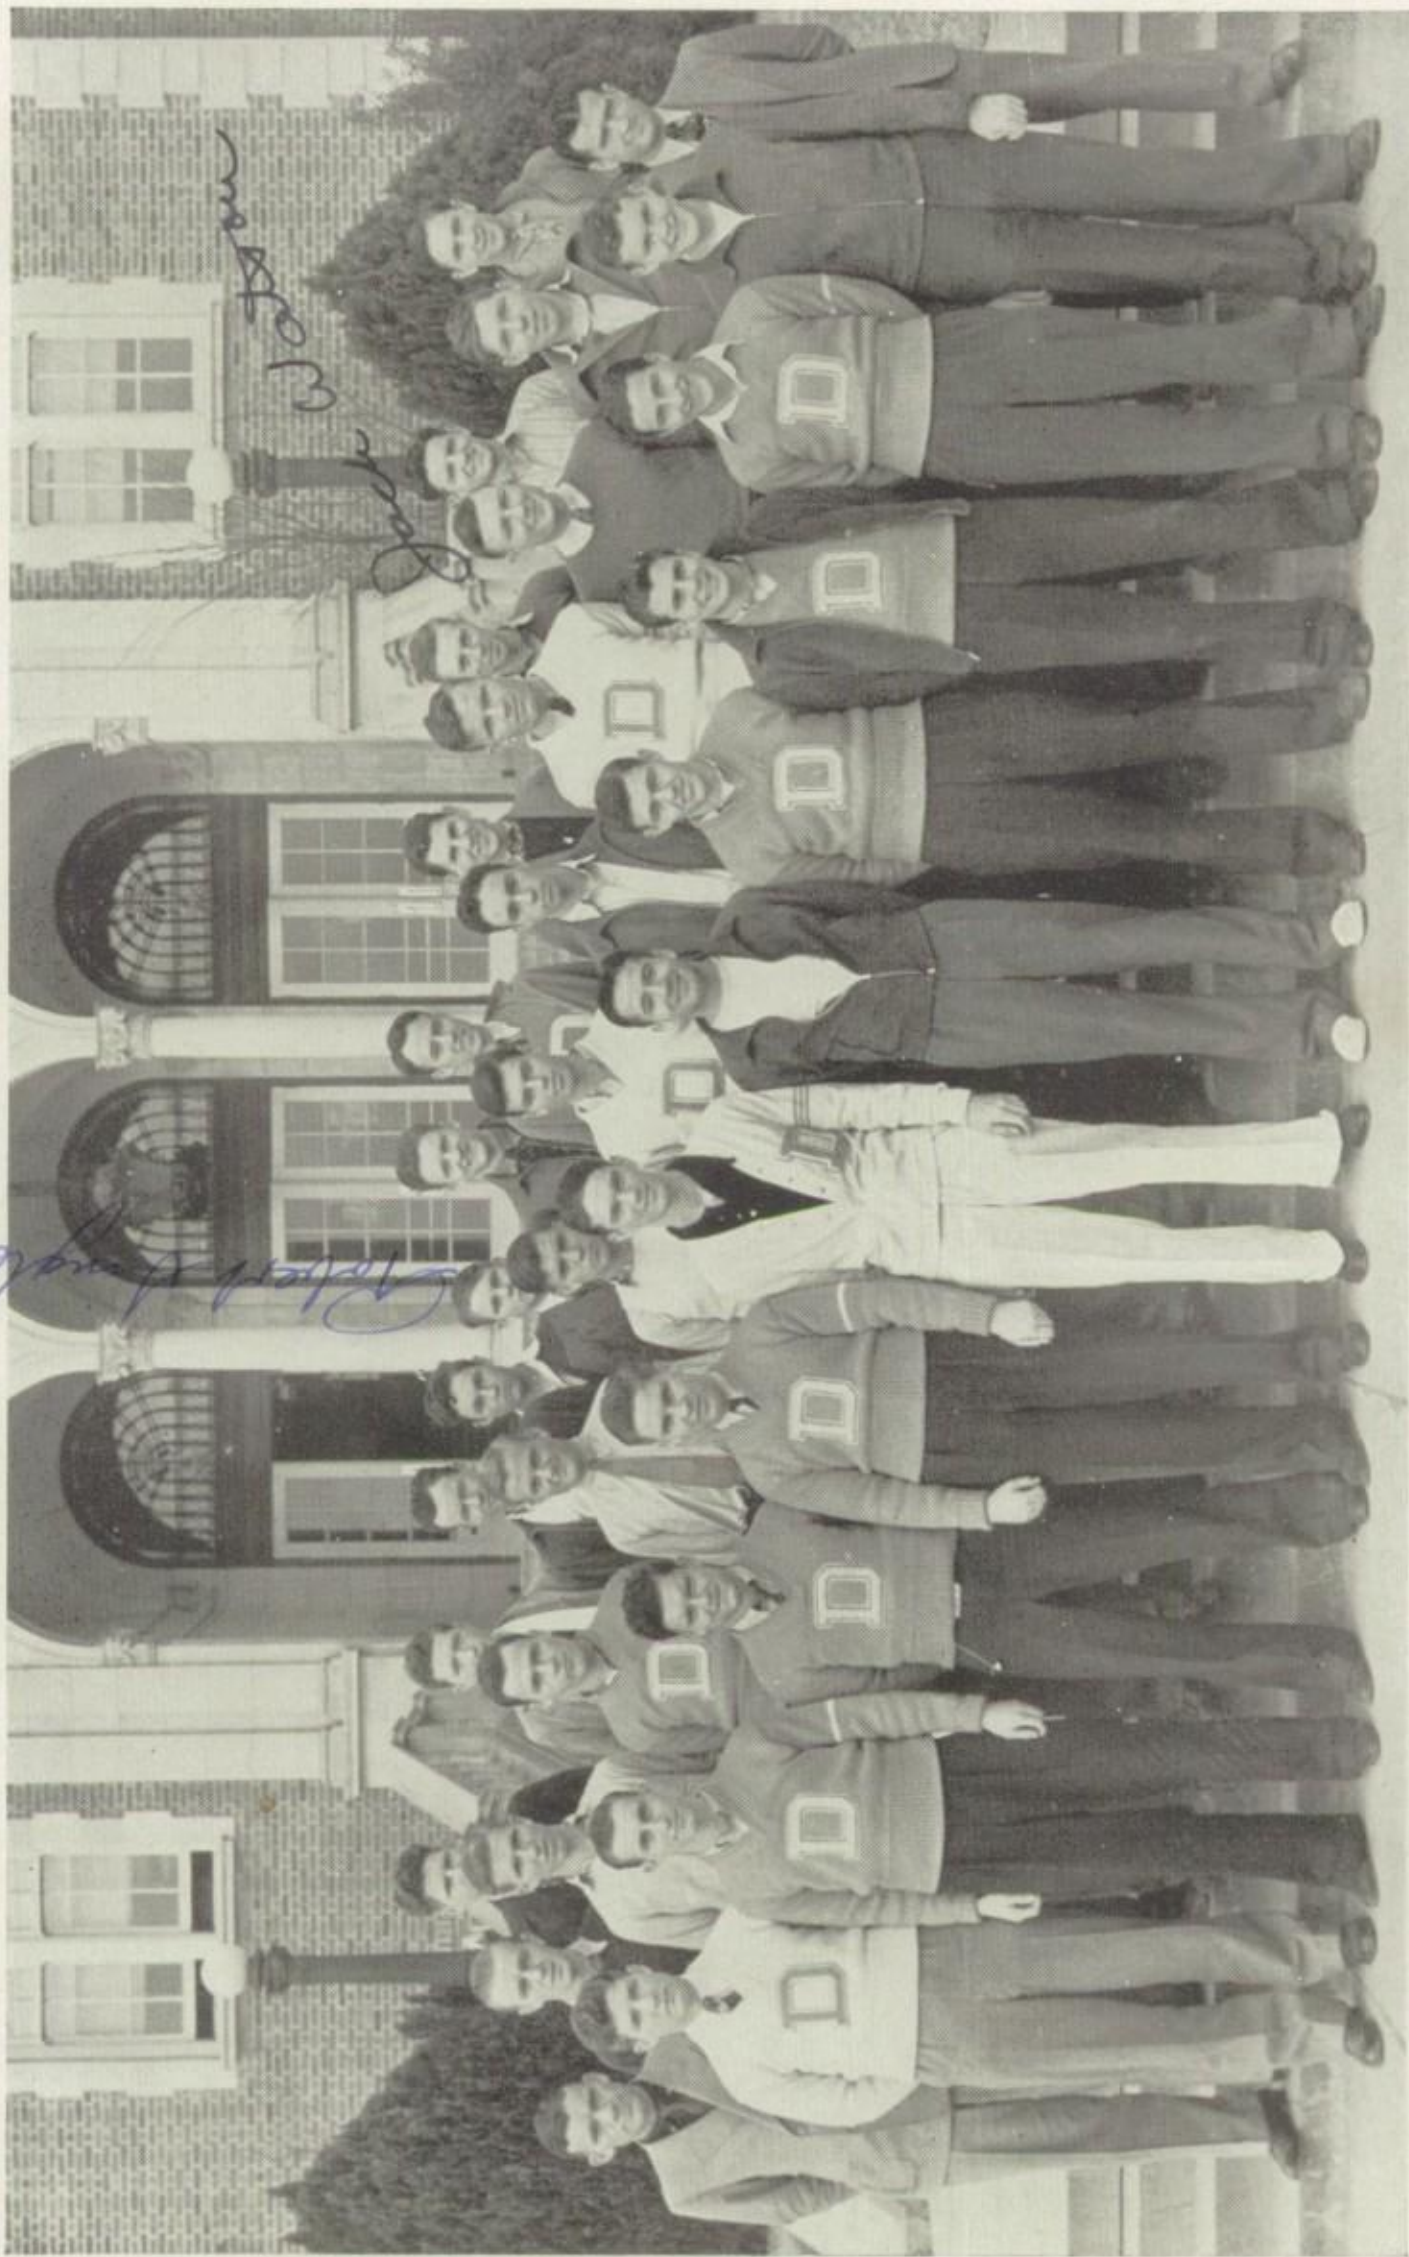

EARL AUSTIN . . . halfback . . . probably the best kicker in the city . . . made 60-yard return of a kick-off against North Side . . . has two more years.

BOB FLEET . . . fullback . . . backed-up line well . . . passes left-handed . . . made a nice run in Woodrow game . . . has two more years to play.

1936 Football Review

The North Dallas Football Team of 1936 was undoubtedly the greatest team in the fifteen years of its history. For the first time the team won the coveted City Championship, and the dream of Bulldog gridiron prestige became a reality. The season is especially notable for one reason. This was Coach Anderson's first year as head coach, and Mr. Hyde's first year as assistant coach.

The Bulldogs won seven games of their eight-game schedule, piled up thirty-two touchdowns against five for their nine opponents, and amassed a total of 139 points to their opponents' 36. Such a record had never been even approximated at North Dallas.

Where the credit for winning the Championship is due, of course, is undetermined, but certainly much of it was because of the fine coaching done by Coach Anderson and Coach Hyde. The players highly respected both coaches and would fight until the final whistle for them.

This year North Dallas opened up a dazzling passing attack which clicked all season long. Wally Smith, who also led the running attack, did the passing, and Keith and Nesbitt, the receiving. This year's team was an offensive team, with its plays designed for long yardage. Even in view of this fact, the team had an air-tight pass defense, and a good line defense.

Playing before 20,000 people, the Bulldogs turned in their best performance of the year to win 26 to 6 over Tech, who had dominated the City Series for the past three years. Tech, who had worked ceaselessly for a pass defense against the Bulldogs, could not stop their aerial circus, and the Bulldogs romped all over the field. This win gave North Dallas the Championship.

Basketball

North Dallas basketball team was not so successful this year as last. Lack of a few experienced men and Frank Peck's injury ruined the Bulldog's chances.

In the first half, the team, led by Captain Wilbur Keith won three and lost two games by close scores. They lost to Woodrow Wilson and Tech. Morgan Nesbitt, Wilbur Keith, George Pierce, and Walter Leavell graduated at midterm.

Lettermen for the season are Douglas Ivey, Jimmie Dougherty, Billy Learn, Onnie Loper, Bill Blessing, Morgan Nesbitt, George Pierce, Walter Leavell, and Wilbur Keith.

Golf

Back Row—Left to Right: Bill Crowley, Ted Rall, Charles Johnson, Thomas Uhl, and Coach Witmeyer.

So far this season the Bulldogs have lost three matches with Forest, Sunset and Woodrow Wilson. The boys are practicing on their short game and are improving.

Track

Prospects for a fairly good track team are seen at North Dallas. Only one letterman, E. T. Goodman, is returning, but several good prospects have shown up. Among these are Earl Austin, flashy quarter miler, Jay Sarbry, fast half-miler, and Foy Garrison, miler. Billy Learn, high jumper, has shown some real ability also. The Bulldogs have done quite well in practice meets, and although they may not capture the title, they are expected to finish high.

Tennis

Again the North Dallas tennis team has made a good showing. Bulldog players won matches over Forest, Adamson, Tech, and Sunset, losing to Woodrow only. The entire team lettered as they won three city-series matches.

The boys' doubles team consisted of Eldon Hill and Ted Grinnan, Homer Swindler played the boy's singles. The girls' were represented by Rachel Mathis and Phyllis Cass in the doubles and Betty Wellenkamp in the singles.

Baseball

The baseball team this year is suffering keenly from a lack of experienced pitchers. There are five lettermen returning, but only two are pitchers. The lettermen are Oswald Dauterive, James McKee, Douglas Ivey, Milton Hampton, and John Davis.

Onnie Loper and Tommy Nance, new catcher and outfielder, showed much promise in fielding and in batting.

Cheer Leaders

Front Row—Left to Right: Barbara Becker, Norvelle Webb, and Aileen Irwin.
Back Row: Phil Baxter, Lawrence Rough.

Ed. Lop.: "I can't decide whether to go to a palmist or a mind reader."

Grady B.: "Go to the palmist. It's obvious that you have a palm."

Elbert S.: "Didn't I tell you to notice when the glue boiled over?"

Bernie M.: "I did. It was half past nine."

Tom E.: "What do you do when you are kissed?"

Margy S.: "I yell."

Tom E.: "Would you yell if I kissed you?"

Margy S.: "I'm still hoarse from last night."

CRY OF A P. G.

Those jokes you told us, oh what pain
But that we'll ne'er endure again
Cause four long years for this we've waited
We'll not laugh; we've graduated!

Miss Meriwether: "What is the contribution of the Middle Ages to modern high school life?"

Billy Steele: "Chaperones."

Libby W.: "Some moon, isn't it?"

Egbert: "Yeah, some dew, too."

Libby: "Well, I don't."

"Mr. Chairman," quoth the flea on Robinson Crusoe's back, "I move we adjourn to Friday."

"I draw the line at kissing,"
Said the bashful maid intent,
But he was a football hero
And over the line he went.

Marshal W.: "You have a nice collection of books, but you should have more shelves."

Harry T.: "I know, but nobody seems to lend me shelves."

John C.: "What did you do last summer?"

Tal C.: "I worked in Des Moines."

John: "Coal or iron?"

Hershir's Cook: "Did they say anything about the cooking?"

New Maid: "No, but I noticed them praying before they started eating."

Mrs. Pierce: "What are you doing in the pantry, T. K.?"

T. K.: "Only fighting against temptation, Mom."

Miss Agnew: "John, did you ever have an accident?"

John: "No, ma'am, I never did."

Miss Agnew: "Johnny, a scout is truthful. Wasn't that an accident when your father's mule kicked you last summer?"

John: "No, that mule did it on purpose."

Ben R.: "Say, I found somebody who laughs at all my jokes."

Harry L.: "You don't mean it."

Ben: "Yes, she's got a gold tooth and likes to show it off."

Miss Epperson: "What is a millennium, Tom?"

Tom McElroy: "An insect with many more legs than a centennial."

Minister: "In looking over the collection plate, I have discovered three Canadian nickels, a Chinese copper piece, and a Mexican dime. How nice it is to know that folks come from such great distances to attend services."

The students of N. D. plea before exams:
"Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget."

After exams they bemoan the outcome thus:
"Lord God of Hosts was with us not,
For we forgot, for we forgot."

Prof: "Prexy, the astronomy students are cheating on their exams; something must be done about it."

Prexy: "What are they doing?"

Prof: "Hitting each other over the head with mallets."

Mr. Roberts: "Son, I'll teach you to make love to my daughter."

Jack W.: "Fine, I don't seem to be making much progress."

Then there was the absent-minded professor who thought that he had left his watch at home so he took it out to see if he had time to go back after it.

Billy S.: "Joe certainly was lucky."

Tom E.: "How's that?"

Billy: "He swallowed an oyster that had a pearl in it and the pearl paid the cost of the operation and the funeral."

Boyibus kissibus sweeta galorium
Galibus likabus wanta someorum
Dadibus comibus witha spankorum
Kickibus boyibus outa backdorum.

Mary had a little lamb—
You've heard it oft before—
And then she passed her plate again
And had a little more.

Tom: "Miss Agnew, may I use your red ink?"
Miss A.: "You'll get that later."

Billy B.: "What did the cannibal's daughter say when she sat down to dinner?"

Mary B.: "Give this little girl a great big hand."

Keats—Ode.
Shelley—Lyric.
Wordsworth—Sonnet.
North Dallas—Ella G.

First Cannibal: "Too late for dinner?"
Next Cannibal: "Yeah, everybody's eaten."
